Boiling Point
MENU

Welcome...

... to the Boiling Point restaurant, the emotional battlefield that is our humble establishment. The appetizers of the day consist of a deliciously flavoured opening scene, seasoned with a myriad of energetic voices.

Our recommended first course consists of an intricate date that intertwines the scorching heat of a flambé with the surprising coldness of a gelato. Before the rest of courses are presented, our highly celebrated chefs will eloquently divulge the anatomy of their greatest creations: the pinnacle of international cuisine will be before your eyes.

The following dishes of the day are spiced up with an astonishing combination of ingredients, such as neurotic obsession, phlegmatic wit, comforting nostalgia, and romantic hope. As a corollary of this tasty experience, two bitter-sweet desserts overflowing with secrets and an existentialist final discovery will be offered.

The full menu takes 90 minutes to digest, but the specialized members of our staff will do everything in their power to make sure that you “can’t just get enough” of it.

WE WISH YOU
bon appétit!
