Rosa Martín Sarroca, awarded for the best TFG

Our former student Rosa Martín Sarroca wins the award for the best TFG of the 50th Anniversary of the Faculty of Arts, entitled “Plus-Size Female Bodies on the Small Screen: A Perpetuation of Stigmas or a Step Forward Towards Inclusivity?” and supervised by Dr. Kateina Valentová. The essay aims to analyze the representation of plus-size female characters and their agency in the American TV series Girls (2012), My Mad Fat Diary (2013), Insatiable (2018), and Euphoria (2019), and the English Sweet Magnolias (2020). The results of this research confirm that in our current society, female bodies are more diverse than ever and the entertainment media fail to offer a sufficiently broad and realistic representation of this diversity.
