Tan a prop i tan lluny. Àfrica i literatura

The research group 'Cercle de Literatures i Cultures en Anglès' (CELCA) has organised a round table on African literature at the Lleida Public Library with the following speakers: Felicity Hand (UAB), Carme Figuerola (UdL), Pere Comella (UB) and Juan Miguel Zarandona (U. de Valladolid).

This event is part of the parallel activities to the exhibition dedicated to African writers inaugurated this month, and which can be visited until January thanks to the collaboration between the UB (curators of the exhibition), the Public Library, and the group CELCA of the UdL.
