The Long Christmas Dinner

Theatre Workshop

Last Wednesday, 29th of May, the students of the Theatre Workshop of English Studies directed by Núria Casado had the opening of Thornton Wilder's classic play The Long Christmas Dinner for an audience composed of Baccalaureate students of Màrius Torres, Josep Lladonosa and Col.legi Maristes secondary schools, with whom they also shared a talkback session. The last performances of the show were held on Friday night, in two runs with a very diverse audience composition and a standing ovation at the end. Congratulations!
