

Tribute to playwright Edgar Nkosi White

Interview

Núria Casado Gual has been interviewed by director Dana Manno at a special programme in tribute to playwright Edgar Nkosi White that will be broadcast on ZBJ Radio (Radio Montserrat) on Christmas Day. The conversation, which lasted for more than one hour, evolved around the author's main works, his contribution to Caribbean theatre, and the legacy of his Black (often ageing) anti-heroes to build a compassionate and universal theatre of exile. The interview will be followed by a radio production of his latest piece, Montserrat: A Comedy Divine, which is to receive a full production in New York in April 2026, when Nkosi White would have turned 78 years of age.

